

A pixelated, black and white version of the Instagram logo. The logo consists of a camera outline with a flash on the right side. The entire image is rendered in a low-resolution, pixelated style using shades of gray and black on a white background.